DAILY COURIER. TUESDAY,....JANUARY 18, 1859.

Reading Matter on every page. THEATER .- Last night the beautiful and effect ve play of the Corsican Brothers, dramatized from Alex. Dumas' story of the name, was proluced at the theater. There is probably no story in the whole range of the drama in which the ideas of the author have been more faithfully car ried out in its adaptation for the stage.

Its performance last night would have bee Commission & Forwarding Merchants creditable to any theatrical company in America and reflects great credit upon the stage manager, Mr. Lorton, for the careful manner in which it was arranged and presented. The tableaux are CAIRO, ILL. eautiful and impressive, and the masquerade, C.I. & A. V. DUPONT, with its clown pantalon and harquelin, immense funny. Mr. Keeble, as the Brothers de Franchi, NEWS, BOOK, AND COLORED PAPER, was excellent, and certainly personated the char acter with the taste and judgment of an actor of established reputation. The play is repeated tonight, with the additional attraction of the Forty Thieves, a piece which will not fail in interest Paper of all Kinds. antil the Arabian Knights, with all its wild dreams and poetical fancies, has been forgotten and numbered among the things that were.

There is one attraction which we must not fail to notice in the play of the Corsican Brothers. the exceedingly beautiful and effective tableaux which concludes the play. As a finale, it is the last touch of the artist to a successful picture. It represents the funeral cortege of the ancestry of the Franchi's family—singularly startling and impressive in its effect, and forming a tableaux unequalled in scenic effect and power.

Miss Henrietta Simon, the young French soprano, whose songs were charmingly sung and were "rapturously" received, has a high soprano voice of singular clearness and resonance, and she uses it with that perfect naivete, which only an artist, and a French one, can. Her performance was an artistic bijou, and elicited the most appreciative demonstrations from all present.

TRIAL OF COPE .- In the Criminal Court yesterday, a jury was empannelled in the case of Geo Cope, indicted for assisting the slave of Jno. Weatherly to escape from bondage. The trial will take place to-day. The affair occurred a year and more since, and was attended, as the readers of this paper may remember, with some lusky enslaver of his susceptible heart, whom he provement in mowing machines. addressed in his letters as his "dear Rachel."-The great cantatrice Frezzolini recently lost her fortune by "delicate attachment," and Cope has dictorian. likewise got himself into jail for a "delicate attachment" with a strong odor.

THE GAISTY THEATER.—A large and fashionable audience assembled last night at this place to bear and see the celebrated Polish pianist, Maurice Strakosch, and his splendid company of mu-sical celebrities. We have not as much time to-day to devote to them as we would wish, and shall, consequently, not attempt anything like a criticism. M'lle Parodi and Madame De Wilhorst are artistes of a superior order, and last night they fully sustained the high reputation accorded them by musical critics. Mr. Squires, Signor Amodio, and Signor Barili possess infinite taste and great vocal powers. M. Strakosch, 12 years ago, received the highest enconiums from European writers, and was assigned a position in the list of renowned pianists second to none. His soul seems to dwell in the loftiest realms of music, and whenever his hand, toyokes the sic, and whenever his hand touches the instru-ment the most divine strain of sweet, harmonious otes issues forth, and transports his hearers into exstacies.

EXTENSIVE SWINDLING OPERATION-A NUMBER OF OUR MERCHANTS VICTIMIZED.—Recent extensive swindling operations have been that talk of commercial circles for the past two or three days.—It appears that a man named B. R. Brown, had It appears that a man named B. R. Brown, had been doing business in Cleveland since last spring, and by adroit management, aided by a fine personal appearance, had secured the confidence of several of our merchants with whom he had been doing business. About the latter part of December he perpetrated one of the boidest swindling operations we have heard of for some time, by which some ten or twelve, and for ought we know, many more, have been victimized to the amount, in the aggregate, of probably $25,000.

Brown came to this city the latter part of December, and using the business standing and character he had previously secured, to the very best advantage, he succeeded in purchasing sugar, molasses, coffee, liquors, and various other staple articles, at every house where he could make his credit available. He shipped the goods to Cleveland, in the usual way, making the sad case of Mrs. Lee, of Edgecomb, perishing in the snow storm on the night of Tuesday last; Her husband had gone to the school house for his children, and returning after nightfall, be-came bewildered in the storm and halloed for aid. The deceased heard him, and instead of placing a The deceased heard him, and instead of placing a light so as to be seen, sallied out in the storm to render aid, and soon found Mr. Lee and the children. Both parties became bewildered, but Mr. Lee finally, with the children, succeeded in reaching the house, when he found his wife was missing. Search was unavailing until morning, when her lifeless frozen body was found partially covered with snow a short distance from the Scandal in High Places.

The Boston Herald of the 10th says that an on dit prevails in Dorchester, that a divorce case o no common interest is about coming off between parties moving in high circles among the fashion-ables of that town. The lady is represented as being very beautiful, high-spirited, and no little wayward withal. The husband's place of business is not more than a mile from the new Boston post office, and the gentleman reported to have been seen in a questionable position, on a certain occi sion, while in company with the wife, is a hand-some, wealthy bachelor, doing business further down town-say within a few minutes' walk of Faneuil Hall market. The affair is creating no little scandal and tea-table talk, in and about Dorchester. Not for a long time back have the ladies thereabouts had such a tit-bit to gossip over, as they sip their Bohea and Souchong, and should the matter reach the courts, much rich and rare music r the million who love such things may be con idently looked for. So runs the rumor, at all events

Since the publication of the above paragraph the Herald has been assured that the report is not the invention of mere scandal-mongers, but is based upon facts as numerous as they are indisputable, and savs: The unfortunate and much abused husband is

If the above lucid description of the parties employs any person to reserve the second of the parties of the parties of the protection of the prot parties enables any person to recognize them, he or she is welcome to the information, as also to the story we are about to spread before our readers.

Some two years since the husband, or mer-thant, as we will call him, made a tour o Europe, partly on business and partly for he restoration of his health, which had become affected by too close attention to his mercantile pursuits. He left his wife, a plump, good look-ing and rather spirited woman, domiciled in a pretty cottage in the town of Dorchester, with two children to remind her of her absent lord, and surrounded by every comfort and luxury that the majority of wives desire. Her nearest neigh-bor was a pleasant, middle-aged, and not badoor was a bleasant, middle-aged, and not bad-looking bachelor, and, as soon as her husband started on his tour, prompted, perhaps, by her own feelings of loneliness, she commiserate twith his single and dreary life, and invited him to ac-cept lodgings beneath her roof, urging that her fears of midnight robbers and other nocturnal terrors had deprived her of sleep. It needed no second invitation—the bachelor was too gallant, had too much sympathy for the tignid wife. had too much sympathy for the timid wife to refuse the first, and he was forthwith installed as the defender and protector of the merchant's household gods. In his new station the humane bachelor was determined to show how well qual fied he was to perform the part of a devoted hus band, and he succeded so well that the lonely wife rewarded him by granting favors which the statute expressly forbids. Such deep gratitude on the part of the wife encouraged the bachelor to greater efforts to make his patroness comforta-ble. All of his leisure hours were devoted to her, and he did not allow his business to occupy more time than was absolutely necessary. Such an instance of friendship to a wife in the absence of her husband, did not escape the notice of the village gossippers. They, of course, were too uncharitable to believe in its innocence and sincerity. At sewing circles and teaparties, at home and in charch, it was the subject of long and earnest discussion among old women and discontented wives. Their suspicions once aroused, these people were bound to investi-gate the matter, the result of which was a repor soon became current that the bachelor nightly ocied the place the husband had temp ated. The scandal spread with such a rap hat such a matter only can in a country vil out the wife and her paramour heeded it not up but the wife and her paramour heeded it not until the return of the husband, to whom it was duly reported by some good-natured friends.
Of course, an explosion followed. The husband, who would have preferred to follow his wife to the grave rather than believe in her dishonor, asked her if the reports were true. She dared not add falsehood to her shame, and confessed that in an unguarded hour, she had violated her marriage vow and brought dishonor upon him and obildren. To her confession she added that she hildren. To her confession she added that sh had repented of her sinfulness, and implosed forgiveness, declaring with passionate earnestness that, if forgiven, she would forever after be a true and loving wife. The husband, whose love was stronger than his resentment for the many wrongs he had suffered, extended his pardon, and the erring woman was again taken to his bosom.

In no branch of our domestic markets has there been a greater increase and improvement in cities than in that of poultry. This results chiefly from the facilities offered by speedy transportation, and the establishment of Express Companies for all parts of the country, who in cool weather will transport fresh poultry to market from the most distant States in perfect order, when the dressing and packing has been properly performed. In the larger cities the increase in the poultry trade has been most marked. For instance, in the city of New York the quantity of poultry that arrived in one week, from the 20th to the 27th of Decemer last, is estimated at 350 tons, or an average of 50 tons a day. From Monday to Friday of that week the American Express Company delivered twenty eight car loads, containing five tons to the car, chiefly poultry. The remainder of this immense store for the supply of Christmas week came by other established Express lines, by boats and country wagons.

An important feature in the poultry trade has been established by several enterprising firms for the supply of the New York market, which is wor thy of imitation for the supply of the city markets of the West. We allude to the establishment of 'poultry factories," at convenient and centra ints in the interior. There are several of these oultry-fattening establishments in New Yorkone in Aurora, two in Chantaqua county, and oth ers in Ohio. It is estimated that each of these factories will furnish fifteen tons of poultry for the city market of New York. A large number of men and teams are employed in collecting these birds, which are brought in alive, and if not fat are fed till they are, and rendered fit for market, They are then dressed and packed in the most ap' proved manner, and sent by Express to market. than much of the country dressed poultry that is brought to market by farmers and hucksters gen-

Poultry in our markets is generally sold by the piece or dozen, at prices sometimes according to size and quality. In passing through the market we see parsels of chickens that are mere skeletons covered with skin, entirely unfit to eat; and itry of this character is not unfrequently met ith. This is sometimes sold by those who raise it, but more generally it is bought up in the country and sold by hucksters. If the custom of selling poultry by the pound was established, it would come to market in much better condition. It is a great waste after raising fowls to maturity to ring them to market so poor as not to reach more than half weight. With our present railroad facilities, "poultry factories," similar to those we have spoken of in New York and Ohio, might be established in the country for the supply of our western city markets, to good advantage to the proprietors, as well as to the infinite benefit of con-

A KENTUCKY PLANTER SELLING HIS DAUGHTER A moving incident came to our knowledge last week, which we lay before our readers. We suppress names for reasons obvious to every one.

Near Louisville, Ky., lives a planter of wes and standing. He was the possessor of a hun-dred negroes, and he was noted for his thrifty, money-making disposition. He had never been married, and was an incorrigible bachelor of fifty. His house was managed by a young lady of about twenty, his daughter by a quadroon, whose com-plexion was lighter by half than his, and in whom the negro blood was scarcely visible. The mother died ten years ago, leaving her daughter with ber father's solemn promise that she should be educated, and should live as a free woman rather than as a slave, and that she should pass as his daughter, as she was. The planter gave this nise, because he had been really attached to the dying woman, and was greatly attached to her and his beautiful child. And so she grew up, radiantly beautiful, receiving a reasonable education, all that her father could give, and in time took the management of his household. She never knew that there was any negro blood in her value and preer dreamed that she was a her veins, and never dreamed that she was a

Last fall a series of misfortunes overtook the planter. His house was burned down and in it the notes, books and papers that composed a large portion of his fortune. His crops failed to a great degree, and some heavy speculations in which he was engaged resulted disastrously. Added to all this, he had lost heavily at play, the besetting sin of Southern gentlemen, and had com-pletely exhausted all his ready means, and found bimself in the terrible situation of having more money to pay than he could possibly raise in a

He applied to his attorney for counsel in his extremity. The attorney, after examining the situation of his affairs, advised him to sell off a portion of his negroes. The planter objected strenuously—first, objecting to the sale of the negroes; and secondly, that his force was barely sufficient to work his plantation. But after full deliberation he found this to be the only alternative, and sorrowfully consented. A list was made out, and every head that could be possibly spared was put down. After all was done, and with the most favorable prices for them, the aggregate fell ive thousand dollars short of the sur

The attorney remarked quietly that he had not ocluded all that could be spared. "I have put down all I can dispense with," re-plied the planter.
"I did not see Mary, the housekeeper's name, in he list," replied the lawyer. "She, if offered to he right person, would make up the deficiency.

would give that for her myself." At any other time the planter would have taken the suggestion as an insult; but necessity is a hard master, and he grasped at the idea, and beore an hour the transaction was closed. It trou oled him not a llitle to disclose the matter to her bled him not a little to disclose the matter to her, but the fear of bankruptcy and ruin drove him to it. The poor girl's horror and distress may be imagined. She had known nothing but happiness, and now was to be plunged into the deepest and now was to be plunged into the deepest and most hopeless misery. She had been sold, and was then the property, soul and body, of one who purchased her merely for the gratification of his lusts. The idea was too horrible, and she swooned, remaining almost delirious for several days.

There was another upon whom the intelligen came with crushing weight. A junior partner in produce house in Louisville had frequently vis ited the planter's house on business, and struc with the beauty and intelligence of the suppose daughter, had become enamored, and after pro secuting his suit a proper time, had declared his passion, and, unknown to the father, the two had betrothed themselves. As soon as possible, after her father had told her her fate, she dispatched messenger to him, stating the facts, and implo ng him to save her from the doom that awaited ner. Though thunderstruck at the intellighat his affianced bride was a slave, and had been sold to a fate worse than death, like a true man he determined to rescue her. That n saw her, and a plan was formed for flight. The day she was transferred to the possession o her purchaser they fled, and in due time arrived at Cincinnati, where they were married. Our here obtained an interview with one of the agents of the underground railroad located in that who immediately telegraphed instructions to the different agents along the line to keep strict watch, and if women catchers were on the watch at any point to telegraph back, and give the fugitives timely notice, that they might leave the train.— Accordingly, they started, purchasing tickets for

In the meantime the lawyer, as soon as he discovered his loss, had commenced active measures to recover it. He had no difficulty in tracing them Cincinnati, and none whatever in ascertaining that their destination was Crestline. But having arrived several hours after their departure, he was obliged to content himself with telegraphing to Crestline to the proper officers to arrest them at that place. But, unfortunately for his pros-pects, the intended arrest got wind, and when the train reached Galion, two citizens of that place stepped into the car, and a conversation of a few moments ensued in the lowest kind of whispers at the close of which the four left the car. carriage was in waiting, and in two hours the fair fugitive and her husband were domiciled in the house of one of our whole-souled farmers, near Bucyrus, who has long taken pleasure helping fugitives on their way to the Canadian

The Congress of Artists.

[From the N. Y. Evening Post.]
WASHINGTON, Jan 12, 1859. The American Congress of Artists are in this city, and will hold their first sitting to-day. The Special Committee of the House, appointed at the last session of Congress, on motion of Mr. Marshall, of Kentucky, to consider the subject of decorating the Capitol, have had a conference with the aforesaid Congress of Artist this graphing. aforesaid Congress of Artists this morning. The interview was quite satisfactory to the artists, who only complain that in the interior decorations of he Capitol they have not had a fair chance.

The Committee have ordered the decorations to top. So far the subjects of them are chiefly detop. So far the subjects of them are chical de-ired from foreign scenes or are fancy. Very few illustrations of American history or scenery are represented, and all the work is executed by Italan and other foreign artists. The Special Committee have in contemplation the recommendation of a Board of Commissioners to superintend the whole work of decorating, which board shall offer an opportunity to all American artists to compete with those from other lands, superiority of workmanship to be the test. This was the course pursued by Parliament in providing for the decora-tions of the chamber in which it assembles. The same is true in France in relation to the French Chamber of Assembly. In each of those countries national pride had something to do with national work. The House of Parliament was decorated by Britons, and the French Assembly Chamber by Frenchmen. In the same spirit let the Capitol of this great nation be decorated by American artists, if we have men among us competent to per form the work. DEATH OF A YOUNG LADY WHILE DANGING .- A young lady named Margaret Nichols fell dead evening before last, while standing on the floor making one of a gay and merry quadrille. The event occurred at the Steamboat Hotel, corner of Front and Ludlow streets. The Coroner was in mediately summoned, the jury returning a verdict of death by physical derangement. It seems that the young lady has for the past two or three years been afflicted in a very singular wise, that despite the best medical advice could not be overcome.—She was about seventeen years of age.—Cin. In Bugs, Koaches, Fleas, Mosquitoes, Motts, Garden Insects, Ants, etc.

The chemical preparations known under the above title for the last 22 years throughout Europe, where they have met with a triumphant success, have acquired for their inventor and manufacturer a world-wide elebrity, attested by the Emperors of Russia, France, Austria, the Queen of England, the kings of Belglum, Holland, Naples, Bayaria, Saxony, etc.; and in America their efficiency has been indorsed by the Directors of Public Institutions, and the approval of numerous private citizens, and that they are the only remedies in the world sure to exterminate all kinds of vermin.

Meyer's Miraculous Preparations destroy the unwelcome intruders without mercy, and never fail. His Art has brought death to millions of them in the world, and from this day the watchword of all housekeepers, merchants, ship owners, and husbandmen will be "No more vermin."

XXXVth CONGRESS-SECOND SESSION. Washington, D. C., January 17.—Senate.— The Senate chamber is crowded to excess, as Senator Douglas is expected to pronounce an eulogy on the decease of Mr. Harris, of Illinois. Mr. Seward, of N. Y., presented the credentials of Hon. Henry Wilson as Senator from Massachusetts till 1865 Mr. Seward offered the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Treasury is requested to communicate to the Senate, as fully as it may be in his power to do so, the number of American vessels which are engaged in the palm oil trade on the coast of Africa, the average num-ber of their voyages annually, their tonnage, nature and value of their exports and imports, and the amounts of duties derived from them by the Treas by of the United States.
On motion of Mr. Hale, of N. H., the joint reso ation appointing Com. Stewart senior flag officer, as taken up.

Mr. Hunter, of Va., called for the yeas and nays, which resulted in the adoption of the resolut ayes 37, noes 14. Mr. Iverson, of Ga., moved to take from the ta ble the motion to appoint Friday of each week for he consideration of private bills. Agreed to. Mr. Johnson, of Tenn., moved to take from the table his resolution directing the Committee on Finance to report a bill in accordance therewith, to limit the expenditures of the Government within the revenue.

Mr. Hunter, of Va., Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, objected to the reference of the subject to his committee. Mr. Gwin, of Cal., moved its reference to a se

House .- On motion of Mr. Phelps, of Missouri it was resolved that during the evening two weeks from to-day, it shall be in order for the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union to take a recess till 7 o'clock, P. M., for ger or to take a recess till 7 o'clock, P. M., for general debate only.

Mr. Stephens, of Georgia, moved that Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week be set apart for the consideration of Territorial business.

Mr. Morgan, of New York, objected, unless the proviso be attached that the subjects introduced shall not include the admission of new States.

Mr. Stephens remarked that that would be for ne majority of the House to determine. Mr. Morgan. Then I object to the introduction

Mr. Morris, of Illinois., announced the death of T. L. Harris, his late colleague, pronouncing eulogy on his private or public worth. From Washington.

Washington, Jan. 16.—A caucus of the Democratic Senators was held yesterday, on the President's recommendation in reference to Cuba. A debate of three or four hours ensued, involving the question whether any steps should be taken in relative to it and if the control of the co the question whether any steps should be taken in relation to it, and, if so, of what character. According to the best attainable a thority, Mr. Mason made the opening speech, and was followed by Hunter and Shields. Though favorable to the acquisition, they thought action at this time impolitic, and calculated to impair rather than to improve our prospects to that end.

Douglas regarded appearances as gloomy, but would support Siidell's bill placing in the hands of the President thirty millions of dollars to be used in negotiation, and expressed the belief that the in negotiation, and expressed the belief that the President would not indorse this measure withou sufficient data to justify him in so doing. Doug las had long desired the acquisition of Cuba. In his judgment there is but one mode, and that was on the happening of another case similar to that of the Black Warrior to seize the island by way of reclamation and negotiate afterward.

Davis and others did not like the suggestion o Douglas. The discussion at this stage became in-ensely interesting, the best of ability of the par-icipants therein being put forth. Slidell of course advocated his own bill. Davis, Toombs, Gwin Bigler, and Clay favored the idea of increasing to a sufficient extent the foreign intercourse fund leaving the matter to the decision of the Presiden as in previous cases. Iverson thought Spain could be wearied with the question of Cuba by a repeal of such parts of our own laws as restrain the ac tion of our citizens toward foreign powers, o something to this effect. The determination o the caucus was with few exceptions to favor the recommendation of the President, although the preceise mode in which it should be consummated was not so clearly indicated, but the probability s the Senate will pass Slidell's bill.
Orders have been issued from the War Depart ment similar to those which were sent to Kansas pending the former troubles, namely, to use the four or five companies of troops now there as a posse comitatus to enforce the laws during the present disturbances in that Territory.

According to report, when the Senate's French spoliation bill, which is now on the speaker's table, shall be taken up for reference, an effort will be made to pass it by a suspension of the rules and under operation of the previous question. STEAMBOATS LEAVING TO-DAY.

FOR PARTICULARS SEE ADVERTISEMENTS. JACOB STRADER, Disman. Cincinnati. EMMA DEAN, Vineyard, Carrollton. EMPIRE, Conner, Leavenworth. EUNICE, McLure, Wheeling. R. J. WARD, Miller, N. O.

THE RIVER was at a stand yesterday, with five the kinks was at a stand yesterday, with hive reet "pass water" on the falls last evening. In the canal there was seven feet water by the mark, which would make scant eight feet water for boats propelled by steam. The weather was disagreeable—cold, chilly, windy, snowy, and icy—with a prospect of either a hard freeze or a heavy snow storm last night.

By our dispatches from Pittsburgh at noon, we By our dispatches from Pittsburgh at noon, we learn that the river was rising, with over eight feet water in the channel, and a prospect of an other coalboat tide. At C incinnati yesterday, the river was also swelling a little, and the officers of the mail boat report Kentucky river slightly on the swell.

The Mississippi at St. Louis was about stationary yesterday, and tolerably clear of ice.

The Prima Donna, a propeller, got freight enough at the wharf yesterday to load her down, guards under, for New Orleans. She took it, of course, at very low rates, and started to the canal after dark.

The job boat, Judge McClure, has a trip to-day, or rather two trips, to tow coalboats through the canal. She has engaged to tow them through to the locks, which is another new feature in the trade, an immense advantage to the coalboatmen, a saving of a great deal of manual labor, and a saving of nearly a day in time. It is also a heresaving of nearly a day in time. It is also a bene fit to the canal, as she can tow a pair of boats through in an hour, which would otherwise occupy the canal 24 hours. It generally requires 15 to 24 hours to work a pair of coalboats through the canal. The Judge is ready to tow anything, and to go in or out of any place large enough for a rat terrier. She only draws 18 inches water, and can tow 500 tons up the falls.

Among the boats advertised to leave Pittsorgan Saturday, were the Steven Decatur for New Orleans, Commerce for St. Louis, and S. P. Hibberd for Nashville. The Endeavor was loading for this port, and the Key West is the next one

John K. Moody, the clever clerk of the splendid Saint Louis and Memphis packet John H. Dickey, is now in the city, on a brief business and pleasure trip. The Dickey is undergoing thorough repairs at the expense of the Uncle Sam doubt, as the latter damaged her considerably when she ran into her.

Tishomingo.—Of this steamer, the Evansville Enquirer says: We learn there will, in all likeligood, be a law suit between the late chartering party and the late owners, and a demand for damages for breach of contract.

OUR INLAND SEA COMMERCE. - According to the statistics, the total value of the steamboats runstatistics, the total value of the steamboats running on the Mississippi river and its tributaries, is over $60,000,000, and they number over fifteen hundred, with a tonnage three fold greater than the steamer tonnage of Great Britain, and more than that of all the nations of Europe and the rest of the world put together. Yet, singular enough, politicians have been found who contend that it is unconstitutional for the United States to improve the navigation of the streams navigated by this immense fleet of steamers.

The gay Umpire came in from Kentucky yiver yesterday, with a good trip, including a quantity of bagging. She is the Monday and Thursday packet.

ANOTHER PITTSBURGH LINE .- We learn that new line, called the Pittsburgh and Memphis Union Line, has been formed. It consists for the present of the Ida May, Capt. John May, the Anglo Saxon, Capt. Baker, and the Hastings, Capt. Porter. The latter will be the first one to leave, and one of these boats will follow each succeeding week. We wish the line success. ceeding week. We wish the line success. A TESTIMONIAL. - The boatmen of Pittsburgh are getting up a testimonial for Capt. Billy Forsyth, their late wharfmaster. We learn that Temple & Robinson, of the Madison shipyard, have contracted to build a ferry boat for Louisiana, Mo.

Mercor Chargeren.—Instead of coming back, welcarn that Cap'. B. H. Orr has chartered the Meteor for the New Orleans and Baton Rouge

THE LOSS OF THE MARION .- We have but few additional particulars in regard to the loss of the Marion. She was snagged in Soda Lake, Redriver, just above Shreveport, with a cargo of cotton. The B. L. Hodge, which reached New Orleans on the 9th, had part of the cotton of the boat. The boat was worth about $9,000, and was insured for $2,000. It was thought she would prove a total loss. The Falls City, from New Orleans, was at Cairo on Friday, with a large lot of freight for Cairo. She has 2,000 barrels of molasses for Cincionati, and 100 hhds of sugar, which she ex-pects to ship on the Keystone, at Mound City, and the Lebigh, from St. Louis.

with nearly 500 tons for Pittsburgh, ncluding 500 bales of cotton

THE ACCIDENT TO THE WM. GARVIN, -This boat caught fire at Cairo on Friday evening, but did not barn up, as reported. The fire broke out in the forward part of the texas, kindled by a spark from the chimney, and it was by great exertions that she was saved. She was beached immediately, on the Kentucky side. The Garvin was bound for St. Louis, to lie up, and had no freight, and but few hands

The Flying Cloud, from New Orleans, dis charged at Cairo Friday, 500 barrels of molasses for Cincinnati. Since the underwriters have refused to insure on boats that tow barges, outside boats have good pickings in Cincinnati freights. The Madison, recently sunk, is now at Cincinnati undergoing repairs, and will be able to re-sume her place in the Express Line in a month.

day were "setting a spar," it "tripped" and fell, striking two of the men, who were badly injured The fleet Antelope, Capt. Brown, is due from New Orleans to-morrow, and is advertised to return on Thursday.

The following items we glean from the Cin-The following items we glean from the Cincinnati Gazette of yesterday:

The Kate French came into port on Saturday morning with her flag at half-mast, while her manifest had on at the bottom, "E. Pluribus Unum." The French was on her last trip. She returned to Patriot, where she has laid up for the present. There are now in the trade one regular packet per day—the Forest Queen, and Kentucky. A new scale of rates has been agreed upon, which is a slight advance on the tariff that this trade have demanded for a few months past. Passengers fare will be $1 to Patriot, $1 10 to Carrollton, and $1 50 to Madison. Rates of freights will be advanced in the same proportion.

The packets at Portland yesterday were getting good trips, and the McLellan, for Membhis, had as much freight as she could handle. Among her passengers were the Cooper Opera mond has resumed her former position in the trade between this port and Owensboro. She takes her former days, Tuesdays and Fridays, and starts this evening on her first trip, in charge of Capt. Hollcroft, a clever boatman. She starts from the city wharf.

COAST PACKET.—The big Empire, the fast ferry, is the regular coast packet for Leavenworth and every landing along shore, three times a week. She starts this morning at 8 o'clock, and goes through in daylight, stopping anywhere and everywhere to bring butter and eggs to market. We wish her an abundance of good luck.

FOR NEW ORLEAN.—The Robert I Wand her

FOR NEW ORLEANS.—The Robert J. Ward having been detained, takes her departure to New Orleans this evening, in charge of Capt. Silas Miller, with Frank Smith, the most correct clerk on the river, to attend to the office.

The clipper packet James Montgomery is due from New Orleans this evening. She is advertised to return on Thursday, in charge of Capt. J. B. Russell, one of the most popular boatmen on the river.

The Emma Dean is the accommodation packet for Westport, Bethlehem, Madison and Car-collton at 1 P. M. to-day.

The famous John Gault, Capt. Bunce, is he regular Louisville packet for Nashville Thursay. She is ready to receive freight to-day. FOR THE EAST.—The leviathan Jacob Strader is the mail and passenger packet for Ciuc innati and the East at noon to-day. She travels at locomo-tive speed, has good officers, and can accommo-date 200 passengers. The attentive clerk, R. S. Danning, is prepared to give through tickets.

The receipts by the river during the past week were quite ample of almost all articles, excepting produce Among the imports were 361 hhds. of sugar, 1,044 barrels of molasses, 20 tierces of rice, 1,150 bags of coffee, 350 boxes of tin, 3,466 bundles of paper, 3,600 bushels of wheat, 2,720 bushels of corn, 1,000 bales of hay, 1,399 barrels of whish 230 tons of pig iron, 5,020 packages of of whisky, 330 tons of pig iron, 5,020 packages of iron, 174 bales of hemp, 50 kegs of shot, 100 pigs of lead, 52 hogsheads of tobacco, 404 bales of cotton, 1,952 boxes of glass, 1,080 kegs of nails, and 2,474 packages of sundries. The Missouri river at Booneville was reported high, and rising fast. The following in reference to the boats in the trade of St. Joseph during the year, is from the Gazette:

The total number of beats in the trade was sixty-seven, and the largest number of arrivals in one day was seven—fave from St. Louis, and two from Oouncil Bluffs. The greatest number of boats in port at one time was thirteen.

SENATE.-Mr. Shields, of Minnesota, offered resolution directing the Committee on Territories to inquire into the expediency of organizing that portion of the original Territory of Minnesota lying West of the present State boundary .-

Adopted.

Mr. Yulee, of Fla., presented the petition of Messrs. Kunkhardt & Co., and other agents of steamship lines between New York and Europe, praying for a revival of the laws relating to exons for the benefit of drawback. Referre to the Committee on Post offices and Post Roads. Further business was suspended by a message from the House, announcing the death of the late Phomas L. Harris, of Illinois.

Mr. Douglas, of Illinois, to the evident disap-pointment of about 2,000 spectators thronging the galleries and every accessible point in the chamber, who expected to hear an extempore oration, read, in a low tone of voice, a brief sketch of the life and public services of the Messrs. Shields and Davis followed in the delivery of brief eulogies, and after the passage of the usual resolutions the Senate adjourned.

House.—Messrs. Clark, of New York; Lamar, of Mississippi; Washburn, of Illinois; Adrian, of New Jersey, and Stewart, of Maryland, added their mournful tributes to the memory of the deceased. The usual resolutions of respect were passed, and the House adjourned.

From Washington. Washington, Jan. 17.—The expenses of the U. Supreme Court for the last five years, includ-S. Supreme Court for the fast live years, including the Judges' salaries, have amounted to $112,509, of which $21,000 was paid to the Clerk.

There were comparatively few members in the House to-day, during the delivery of the funeral eulogies of the late Mr. Harris, which consumed about two hours.

It appears from the public documents that the amounts paid and incurred by the Evacutive of

It appears from the public documents that the amounts paid and incurred by the Executive of Kansas, on account of extraordinary expenditures, were as follows: By Gov. Geary, $690; by Gov. Walker, $4,406; by Gov. Denver, $1,243.—The Secretary of State recommends an appropriation for the payment of the aggregate.

The resolution of Mr. Phelps, providing for night sessions of the House, is merely for the delivery of Buncombe speeches, and was passed by a large majority. This is intended to facilitate the transaction of business in the House during the earlier part of the day, when it will be insisted that the discussion shall be strictly confined to the business legitimately before that body.

Hogs PACKED AROUND EVANSVILLE, IND .- We are in ecelpt of Geo. Foster & Co.'s annual circular, giving an estimate of the pork packing in the vicinity of Evans-ville, which we subjoin. The hog crop, corn crop, hay, and produce generally are very short in that region this season. This was greatly attributable to the freshet in the Wabash which overflowed the botton lands :

We have taken great care in preparing the following table of the comparative number and weight of hogs packed in the counties adjacent to this point, called the "Pocket Counties," and our friends may rely on its ac-Hogs Packed in the "Pocket Counties" for the Year for an abundant hog crop next year in this section are not promising. There are very few stock hogs, and as corn is scarce and high, farmers will be inclined to keep their corn rather than feed their hogs.

There is a large breadth of wheat sown, and with a favorable season, we may look for an abundant supply of that valuable cereal.

CINCINNATI MARKET .- The following is from the Ga-

rette of yesterday:

Flour may be called 5@10c P bbl higher with a continued good demand and but moderate receipts. Whisky advanced to 26c, but we noticed lots held on speculation were being placed on the market at this rate, so that the market closed less buoyant. There is a large stock of this article in store here, variously estimated at 20,000 to 30,000 bbls. Mess pork advanced 25c P bbl, but at the close there were more sellers than buyers at the advance, which gave the market a heavy aspect. A lot of 6,000 bbls were offered at $17 50, delivered at Louisville, and 1,000 do at $18, delivered at N. York next June—$17 was the only offer obtained for the Louisville lot. Nothing done in bulk meats, and prices must be regarded nominal at 6 and 8c, which are the asking rates. Lard is steady with a moderate demand. We notice some speculative movement in linseed oil, and 75 cents was freely offered for it to-day. This article is advancing in New York, with more buyersithan sellers there to-day for it, at 68c. Pig iron is stiffer, with an improved demand.

DR. STRAUS, SURGEON DENTIST

would inform the citizens of Louisville and its vicinity, that he has located himself here permanently, for the purpose of practicing his profession in all its various branches, after the latest and most approved style. Having practiced for the last twenty years in New Orleans, I feel confident of giving satisfaction to every one who may honor me with a call. I would call the particular attention of the public to my mode of filling teeth, which is done in such a manner as to get twice the amount of gold into a cavity, as done in the usual way. I can, therefore, "guarantee "every tooth plugged in such manner to be as good as if never decayed. Artificial teeth inserted—from one to an entire set—not only for beauty, but also for use, with or without suction, such as the case may require. Teeth extracted with as little pain as possible, and all other operations pertaining to dentistry.

DRS. FITTZ & WILSON, DENTAL SURGEONS, HAVING had the advantage of a thorough Dental education, offer their Professional services to the citizens of Louisville and vicinity. Dr. Fittz's skill in Mechanical Dentistry can be seen at their office, specimens of which took the first Premium and Diplomas at the United States Fair in 1857. Dr. Wilson has been treating aching teeth successfully for the last five years treating aching teeth successfully for the last five years by destroying the nerve without pain, filling the fangs and crown with gold, restoring the tooth to its natural shape, and making it as useful as before decay. Do not have your teeth extracted until you are certain they cannot be saved. More than fifty per cent. of the teeth usually extracted can be made useful through life. We are daily treating and filling teeth of this class that comes in to be extracted.
